1976-2026

Inaugural CBS Skating Club Report

The Conception Bay South Figure Skating Club came into existence on October 24th., 1976 at a general meeting at the Anglican Church Basement in Topsail when the following executive was elected:

Rhonda Raymond - - President, Wanda Perrin - - Vice-President, Winnie Abbote - - Secretary, Sandra Squires - - Treasurer, Carrie Goosey, Gerry Hynes and Don Neumann - - Directors.

Mr. Allan Davidson, a free lance professional, was chosen by the Club as the instructor, Figure Skating classes by on November 8th., 1976 with an enrolment of one hundred and fifty skaters divided into three one hour classes from 3 p.m. - 6 p.m.

On December 11th., 1976 we had a float in the Santa Clause Parade.

On December 12th., 1976 we held a Demonstration Day at the CBS Stadium.

Six Skaters from the Club participated in the Avalon Region Inter Club Competition, held at the CBS Stadium on February 27th., 1977. They were Lorna Zabb, Rochelle Harrislea, Beverly Morgan, Colleen Greeley, and Donna Youden. At that competition we were very proud of Colleen Greeley, who came in second in Category E.

We are very pleased with our first year in Figure Skating and look forward to bigger and better things in the future.

Our sincere thanks to all those who got behind the Club and helped and supported it during the 1976-77 Season.

Proud Supporter of CBS Skating Clubs 50th Annual Ice Show
